FEB 21 TO MAR 9

The Dresser

by Ronald Harwood directed by Karen Wakeham

Set in England against the background of World War II, a group of Shakespearean players are on tour in a seaside town, led by Sir a renowned actor/manager. The troupe is beset with problems and Sir has become exhausted. It's up to his devoted dresser Norman, and Madge, the stage manager, to hold things together. If they can!

'The Dresser' was nominated for Best Play for the Laurence Olivier Awards, and the film, starring Albert Finney as Sir and Tom Courtenay as Norman, was nominated for five Oscars. This timeless play is a brilliant study of theatrical characters and theatre lore by Oscar-winning playwright Ronald Harwood.

MAY 2 TO MAY 18

AUGUST: OSAGE COUNTY

by Tracy Letts
directed by Joan Moriarty

The Weston family unexpectedly reunite after Dad disappears. Shady secrets and repressed truths emerge that result in a family meltdown.

This fraught and densely plotted saga of a Mid-West American clan is both fiercely funny and biting sad. Packed with unforgettable characters and dozens of quotable lines, this black comedy won both the Tony Award and Pulitzer prize for best new play in 2008!

JUL 11 TO JUL 27

Blithe Spirit

by Noël Coward directed by Tess Maurici Ryan

When novelist Charles Condomine arranges a séance as research for his new book, his intention is to expose eccentric medium Madame Arcati as a fraud. Also invited, along with his second wife, are skeptic Dr Bradman and his wife. In the course of this theatrical event, Madame Arcati mistakenly summons Charles' first wife Elvira, back from the afterlife. Things then get thoroughly out of hand.

This is surely Noël Coward's most whimsical and intriguing comedy.

SEP 12 TO SEP 28

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

by Dale Wasserman
from the novel by Ken Kesey directed by Chris Baldock

'One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest' is the unforgettable and much loved story of a mental hospital and its inhabitants. When a brash new inmate arrives, the rigid program of the ward, headed by the tyrannical Nurse Ratched, is thrown into chaos. It's a world where sanity means conformity, and following the rules is the only way to survive.

"Cuckoo's Nest" is a powerful exploration of both the beauty and danger of being an original. A much celebrated and awarded modern classic, this play is sure to move and entertain.

NOV 21 TO DEC 7

Steel Magnolias

by Robert Harling
directed by Brett Turner

The action is set in Truvy's beauty salon in Chinquapin, Louisiana, where all the ladies "who are anybody" come to have their hair done. The outspoken, wise-cracking Truvy and her assistant, dispense shampoo and free advice to all and sundry with very mixed results. The characters of the piece have that special quality that makes them touching, funny, and truly amiable company in good times and bad.

'Steel Magnolias' was subsequently made into a highly successful film starring Shirley MacLaine, Dolly Parton and Julia Roberts.
